

September Newsletter 2024

Hello and welcome to my Monthly Newsletter which is completely free to download and print.

So it is now Autumn and I have begun to film Autumn vlogs and these will feature my Autumn Reset I am doing, check out my blog site Everyone can build a castle and this will be finishing projects and done this for two years and has really helped, This will end at the end of October.

I have already booked to see a fireworks display in Morden Hall and do book the displays soon as they can sell out and many schools will host a firework display and looking forward to it and then there is Halloween and so will be wearing my witches hat and find a new costume for my son Henry.

I bought a witches hat from a party store and you can make your own costumes. I remember my mum making me a witches hat out of black paper.

I have been planning the next School half term. My son has two weeks so have begun to plan and then there are birthdays including my own and last Saturday did a pre-celebration by going up to North Greenwich by UberBoat. of the My wish of things I wanted to do and then on Saturday the day after my birthday going to a show at Epsom Playhouse.

Then it is my mums, brothers and sons birthday so been planning for these and will be filming some gift guides and tips on saving for Christmas on my Youtube channel Financial living.

I am posting my vlogs on Typical London Gal Youtube channel on Wednesday, Friday and Sunday.

So happy September and see in October with another newsletter.
