

March Newsletter 2026

I love Easter. Not because it means eating a lot of chocolate but get to have a break from the school run and because we get to do something different.

I have plans. My son Henry is doing tennis lessons and he is doing really well, so going to see if I can book a court in Wimbledon Park where he has been dying to go to, to play tennis and they have crazy golf there too.

Then if the transport is okay going to take my son to Guildford by bus and I am sure we'll be taking a trip to London. I am wondering about the weather, not because we will change our plans but mainly what to wear. It has been sunny here in the UK but deceiving and still quite cold.

I am not sure if we will be doing an easter egg hunt as we have been moving but they are good to set up and many places do special events for it. Morden Hall Park is good and Chessington Garden Centre here in Surrey.

Or you can do your own just need eggs and questions and my mum has usually organised it but as we have moved may not be possible.

I am almost finished my next book When Mothers Are Real and so will be published soon and so will be published at the end of March or beginning of April.

I have changed when I do my radio show I was doing my show on Sundays but now changed to Friday mornings 10-12 and so check Epsom Hospital Radio.

I have been posting vlogs on my Youtube channel Typical London Gal and they go out on Friday mornings.
